

Joan Campbell

Joan Campbell is a graduate of the Arvada (Colorado) Citizens Police Academy, a charter member of CPAAA (Citizens Police Academy Arvada Alumni) and has held positions as chair, past chair and member of the board. She actively volunteers at the Arvada Police Department assisting the PIO, guiding tours, working with school resource officers and serving as a citizen on committees. She is a graduate of the Jefferson County Sheriff's Citizens Academy and the Denver Police Department's Citizens Academy and is a member of their alumni groups. She was involved in the formation of the Colorado Citizens Alumni Association.

Joan has a BS and MA in Education. She is a retired elementary school teacher having taught 33 years in the Jefferson County (Colorado) School District. In her spare time, she continues to take college classes and attend lectures pertaining to criminology, law enforcement and criminal justice at local colleges and universities.